Quinn – Attached are some thoughts on the options. I think we need to discuss the basis for each option to better understand the implications and defensibility. Maybe we can talk further on this tomorrow?

Good Morning Amber,

I hope this email finds you well. I am just emailing to follow-up on the progress for your additions to the treated seed briefing and an approximate date we might be able to send it out with your comments. If you have any questions about it in the interim please let me know.

Thank you,
Quinn

Thanks. I'll take a look. Curious if the comments address the "registered for such use" criterion at all.

Hello Amber,

There is greater detail in the comments but this list was just a to give a representative of the categories the comments fell into. Many of the comments for registrant give details to what was brought up in the petition and the comments against registration will be responded to during a response to the petition. First, there needs to be a decision on how we will respond to the petition because that will change how we respond to the comments. I have attached an excel sheet that has some specific comments that represented the summary of comments I pulled out. If you have any questions please let me know.

Best,
Quinn

Sounds good.

Do you recall if the comments summarized in the options paper are fairly consistent with the detail in the comments. The summary seems so superficial – was thinking there might be more.

Also, note that when we historically prepare responses to petitions, we do include a response to the comments filed, not just a response to the petition.

Hi Amber,

I do have a summary of the comments filed on the petition, it is appendix A of the briefing I sent you previously. Unfortunately, I do not have a share point of the comments. If you have any other questions please let me know.

Best,
Quinn

Quinn – Do you have a summary of the comments filed on the petition? And any possibility you have a sharepoint on the comments? Just easier to get access to the comments and search through them for the issues I’m looking at.
